

Sovereign ordinance n° 4.694 of the 30 January 2014
laying down the rules of application of article 7-1 of the Law no 1.165 of the 23 December 1993 regulating the processing of personal data, amended by the law no 1.353 of the 4 December 2008
pertaining to the protection of personal data

(...)

Having regard to the Constitution;

Having regard to the law no 1.165 of the 23 December 1993 pertaining to the protection of personal data, amended;

Having regard to the Sovereign Ordinance no 3.509 of the 1 March 1966 creating a Department of Social Affairs and Health, amended;

Having regard to Our Ordinance no 2.230 of the 19 June 2009 laying down the rules of application of the law no 1.165 of the 23 December 1993, amended, aforementioned;

Having regard to the opinion expressed by the Commission de Contrôle des Informations Nominatives on the 16 September 2013;

Having regard to the ruling of the Government Council dated the 15 January 2014 that was communicated to Us by Our Minister of State;

Have ordered and order:

ARTICLE ONE.

The public service competent in the field of healthcare, mentioned in the first paragraph of article 7-1 of the law no 1.165 of the 23 December 1993, amended, aforementioned, is the Department of Social Affairs and Health.

ART. 2.

The President of the Commission de Contrôle des Informations Nominatives, when the latter wishes may request a consultation of the said public service, refers the matter in writing to the Minister of State, who shall ensure the transmission of the request through the usual hierarchy.

ART. 3.

The opinion of the public service competent in the field of healthcare is transmitted to the President of the Commission de Contrôle des Informations Nominatives through the same hierarchy within a delay not exceeding 5 weeks.

ART. 4.

The consultation of the public service competent in the field of healthcare suspends the delay by two months, which may be extended by the Commission de Contrôle des Informations Nominatives in order to give its opinion.

ART. 5.

Our Secretary of State, The Director of Judicial Services, and Our Minister of State, are appointed, within each of their areas of responsibility, to execute the present ordinance.

(...)